MasterClass Outline:

THE CHANGING LANDSCAPE OF LIABILITY INSURANCE

THE WORLD AND OUR REGION IS IN A PERIOD OF RAPID CHANGE AND UNCERTAINTY THAT IS FORCING US TO RE-EXAMINE THE FUNDAMENTALS WE KNOW AND TRUST. EVENTS AND CATASTROPHES DEMAND THAT WE REDESIGN/ TRANSFORM OUR PROCESSES TO DEAL WITH WHAT IS BEFORE US AND TO CHART THE WAY FORWARD IN LIABILITY INSURANCE. THE PLACE TO START IS TO REVISIT UNCHANGING FUNDAMENTALS; THE GPS TO NAVIGATING THE WAY FORWARD.

LEARN ABOUT:

- EXAMINATION OF HOW TO APPLY THE BASICS, THE LAW AND THE POLICY TO USUAL OR UNEXPECTED EVENTS;
- PAST AND TRENDING LIABILITY ISSUES.

About your facilitators:

Theophilus Francis is the founder of Pioneer Insurance Claims Services Company Limited. He has been a practicing Adjuster for the past 49 years having become involved in the industry and loss adjusting in particular in 1972 when he joined one of the major indigenous adjusting firms in Trinidad. He has been trained locally in Trinidad, the USA and the UK at the College of Insurance.

Mr. Francis' work in the Caribbean has carried him from Guyana on the South American mainland, through to Colombia in the west, to the Bahamas in the north-west, and he has been involved in the management of hurricane catastrophes for the last two decades.

As part of a P&C operation, he has run a large Liability Practice that included Heavy Industry, Incidents, Public Utilities Events and General Commercial Risks.

He has presented at industry seminars locally in Trinidad as well as in several parts of the Caribbean including Barbados, St Lucia, Antigua and Jamaica.

Ann-Rose West Smith is a Technical/ Legal Consultant in General Insurance since 2005.

She has held the positions of In-House Attorney, Claims Manager, Claims Investigations & Audit and Corporate Secretary in several major General Insurance Companies and an Insurance Loss Adjusting firm, all with operations in Trinidad & Tobago and the Caribbean over the period 1989 to 2010.

Mrs. Smith holds a Bachelor of Laws Degree from the University of the West Indies (UWI), Cavehill, class of 1985, and is a graduate of the Hugh Wooding Law School, Trinidad. She was admitted as an Attorney-at-Law in Trinidad & Tobago in 1987 and practiced for two years as an Associate in Chambers in Civil, Family, Conveyancing and Probate law.

She has facilitated workmen's compensation seminars with the Association of Trinidad & Tobago Insurance Companies, (ATTIC) and for General Insurers & Brokers. She has acted as the technical advisor and administrator to the Liquidator for the claims run-off and Winding-Up of three General Insurance Companies in Trinidad and Tobago.
